JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff TYRONE COLEMAN is a twenty-one year old African American man who resides in Staten Island, New York

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants RAYMOND WITTICK, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On March 14, 2011, at approximately 11:30 a.m., the defendant NYPD police officers illegally stopped, detained, and handcuffed plaintiff in front of 239 Lockman Avenue, Staten Island, New York.

13. The defendant officers transported plaintiff to an NYPD police precinct and imprisoned plaintiff therein.

14. The defendant imprisoned plaintiff until approximately 8:00 p.m., when they released plaintiff without charging plaintiff with violating any crimes or statutes.

15. All of the above occurred while other NYPD officers failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

16. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, arresting individuals for mere presence at or near the location of the execution of a search warrant; the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising of its employees; and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality.

17. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers, including the defendants, are insufficiently trained regarding the requirements of probable cause when arresting individuals.

18. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

19. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY of NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise him.

20. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

50. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to, arresting individuals without probable cause. In addition, the CITY OF NEW YORK engaged in a policy, custom or practice of inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising its employees that was the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff TYRONE COLEMAN'S rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of the CITY OF NEW YORK to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
